28.1 NORTHERN IRELAND HOUSING EXECUTIVE – PRESENTATION OF DISTRICT HOUSING PLAN

The Chairman welcomed representatives from the Northern Ireland Housing Executive to present their District Housing Plan to Council. Dr McPeake, the Housing Executive's Director of Design and Property Services highlighted the challenges to be met during the year ahead. While expressing satisfaction at progress on the provision of new social housing, growing waiting lists fuelled by affordability issues were a primary concern.

Dr McPeake said, "Waiting list trends for social housing show an increasing number of applicants registered on the waiting list over the past five years and a decreasing number of allocations of social housing. At the end of 2007, the number of applicants on the Northern Ireland waiting list was 38,346, an increase of over 4,000 (11.6%) on the previous year. The number in housing stress also increased from 18,701 to 20,695. One area of particular concern is that the number of elderly people as a proportion of the population is increasing and this is reflected in our waiting list. Allocation of existing stock has been the means by which the majority of housing need has been met in the past, but now there is a growing dependency on the delivery of new stock.

In our first year of managing the Social Housing Development Programme we have succeeded, in partnership with the Housing Association movement, in delivering a total of 1,595 house starts against a target of 1,500. However this must be set against a need for 2,500 new social dwellings each year in Northern Ireland. This shortfall, combined with continuing difficulties for first time buyers getting on the first rung of the home ownership ladder has added to the pressures on the waiting list for homes in the social rented sector.

As ever, things do not stand still and we face some considerable challenges if we are to meet our objectives in the coming years. Good strategic planning is at the core of the delivery of a quality housing service that must continue to develop. The assurances by the Minister for Social Development, Margaret Ritchie MLA, that housing would remain her priority and that the Housing Executive would continue to be Northern Ireland's strategic housing authority will be central to success."

The Director of Design and Property Services continued:

"There is good news. Considerable progress has been made in improving the condition of Housing Executive stock, with 75% meeting the Decent Homes Standard. Nevertheless, we want to continue this progress and a significant amount of improvement and replacement work remains to be carried out. We will continue with a programme of activity to realise capital from surplus assets, but with a turbulent housing and land market this may not be easy. It will therefore be essential to continue to put the case for additional funding to deliver all of our programmes and hopefully 'in-year bids' will be successful."

"Progress continues on our programmes to deliver shared future housing schemes in those areas where an interest has been identified. The Programme for Government refers to other areas of relevance to our work, including; urban and rural regeneration; independent living for vulnerable people; good relations; renewable energy; sustainable development and reducing the carbon footprint.”

“Under the Review of Public Administration there is to be a reduction from 26 District Councils to 11 larger council areas, with some housing related functions to be transferred from the Housing Executive to the new Councils. These are fewer than initially proposed.

- Inspection and regulation of Houses in Multiple Occupation
- Unfitness inspections
- Travellers transit sites
- The Housing Executive will remain the Home Energy Conservation Authority for Northern Ireland. Councils will have the lead role in local initiatives.”

Finally, under the priority entitled ‘Delivering Modern High Quality and Efficient Public Services’, we are required to produce 5% savings on administration costs each year for the next three years and obtain an overall 3% efficiency saving per year. We are endeavouring to meet these targets through an extensive programme of modernisation which will bring efficiencies while not affecting the quality of service.”

“This is a challenging period but the Housing Executive remains committed to improving housing for everyone. We will continue to work with the Minister, the Northern Ireland Assembly and local Councillors to ensure that housing remains a priority.”

Referring to this year’s District Housing Plan for Ballymoney, Area Manager Frank O’Connor explained that the Plan contained wide ranging information relating to the District, including a detailed Analysis of the Housing Market and the Local Housing Strategy.

Mr O’Connor said, “The District Housing Plan details the range of strategic factors, issues and initiatives which impact on Ballymoney’s housing environment. I want to outline some of the key achievements in the District and also the challenges we face in the coming year, including growing social housing need and affordability issues.

Achievements

Improving housing conditions

The Housing Executive is working to improve housing conditions in the social and private housing sectors in Ballymoney. The House Condition Survey 2006 showed that the level of Unfitness, at 5.5%, has continued to decrease in the Borough.

One of our key objectives is to deliver the Decent Homes Standard in relation to fitness, structure, energy efficiency and facilities. The number of homes in Ballymoney Borough which do not meet the Standard has also reduced significantly from 32.5% in 2001 to 20.2% in 2006. We are continuing to deliver the Decent Homes Standard by:

Improving and maintaining social housing

Last year we invested over £1.6 million on improvements and planned maintenance in Ballymoney, with similar investment projected for this year. Work of this nature commenced at 518 tenants' homes.

Reducing Unfitness in the private sector through grant aid

During the past year grant aid to the value of £521,000 was paid out in Ballymoney Borough and work completed at 49 private properties. The budget for this year is £470,000.

Promoting Independent Living

There are a number of ways the Housing Executive can improve the quality of housing to help people live independently, by developing services and housing solutions tailored to each person's circumstances.

1. Supporting People – In Ballymoney there are 13 supported housing accommodation based schemes in operation providing a service to 120 individuals. There are also 6 floating support providers in the Borough with 74 people benefiting from these services.
2. Adaptations – Last year 131 adaptations started for tenants or members of their households with disabilities, with work ranging from an extension to changes of heating, installing showers and other minor adaptations. During the year we invested £162,000 in adaptations in Ballymoney. In addition, £203,000 was paid out in Disabled Facilities Grants, to help people living in the private sector to remain independently in their homes.

Urban and Rural Regeneration

In Ballymoney Borough our aim is to ensure that housing helps create local sustainable communities through a range of initiatives and that it complements wider Neighbourhood Renewal plans.

At Carnany, Glebeside and Castle Street, the Department for Social Development's Small Pockets of Deprivation Programme is the nucleus for community regeneration in these areas, being taken forward by Supporting Communities Northern Ireland, working in partnership with local people, the Housing Executive and other agencies.

Ballymoney has been awarded Town Centre Living Initiative status, a key element of which is to encourage, through grant aid, the regeneration of vacant and underused buildings in the town centre, to provide living accommodation above retail or office premises. Four applications have been received to date and two Minor Works grants completed.

In the rural areas, the Housing Executive's Neighbourhood Warden continues to provide an important link for elderly and vulnerable residents and also works closely with community groups on issues that impact on the daily lives of local people.

Challenges

Referring to the challenges facing the Housing Executive in Ballymoney, the Area Manager highlighted the increasing Waiting List as a priority for the District.

Growing Waiting List

The demand for social housing in Ballymoney Borough has been steadily increasing over the last five years. The number of applicants on the waiting list increased from 283 in 2003 to 519 in 2007. The number of applicants in Housing Stress has also increased from 88 to 209 over the same period.

The increase in Housing Stress has been the result of a combination of factors, such as:

1. The impact of affordable housing pressures resulting in low income households, in particular first time buyers unable to access the private market, applying for social housing;
2. Some difficulty in acquiring suitable sites for development because of high land costs and competition from private developers.

Over the past 3 years there has been a 42% decrease in the total number of allocations within Ballymoney.

Housing need and Social Housing Development Programme

This year the newbuild starts targets have been drawn from the New Housing Agenda for Northern Ireland and in keeping with the increased targets we have increased the gross number of units in the five year Programme. The annual Housing Need Assessment has calculated that 124 new homes are required for Ballymoney District over the five year period from 2007- 2012.

From April 2008 to March 2013 a total of 103 units, including 7 supported housing units, are planned for the District, in Ballymoney town and in the Borough's villages and smaller settlements, where need has been identified. Additional 'marker' schemes placed outside the 5 year programme may be brought forward should sites and finance become available.

We will continue to work with Housing Associations and others to deliver the social housing programme in this Borough.

Homelessness

Tackling Homelessness continues to be a priority for the Housing Executive, although in Ballymoney over the past 2 years there has been a decrease in the number of households presenting as homeless, from 271 to 236.

There has also been a slight decrease in the number of presenters accepted as homeless during the same period, from 122 to 114.

The District Office is working in conjunction with others to provide support to help reduce recurring homelessness.

The Carnary Homotel project operated by Triangle Housing Association continues to provide both temporary accommodation and floating support services to residents while the Association's Key Project, based in Ballymena, makes an important contribution to helping vulnerable young people integrate into the community.

Affordability

House Prices

As elsewhere, the rapid increase in house prices has created an acute affordability problem in Ballymoney Borough. First time buyers are finding it difficult to access the owner-occupied market and mortgages are harder to obtain.

But affordability is more than just house prices. The relationship between prices and local income is also a key factor. In Ballymoney the average affordable house price increased by £130,500 (264%) between 2001 and 2007, while median income increased by only £1,943 (16%). Between 2001 and 2007 the proportion of affordable properties dropped from 41% to 0%.

Private Rented Sector

The Housing Executive can promote the private rented sector as a viable and affordable housing option by working to improve management standards and the condition of individual properties. The House Condition Survey 2006 indicated that in Ballymoney the private rented sector had increased considerably from 500 properties in 2001 to 1,170 in 2006. During the past year the number of private households receiving Housing Benefit was 784."

Delivering Better Public Services

In conclusion Frank O'Connor spoke about Modernising Services and explained that a Customer Services Unit had been set up in the Area Office in Ballymena, where staff are dealing with repair calls for the 9 North East Districts. Plans are being developed to deliver Housing Benefit and rent accounting services for some North East Districts from the Area later this year. Local offices will continue to deliver Housing, Homelessness, Estate Management and Response Maintenance services from existing locations. We are committed to ensuring that our comprehensive housing service is maintained locally and that we continue to deliver an efficient, modern service to the entire community.

The Housing Executive annually publishes District Housing Plans for each of the 26 District Councils in Northern Ireland. The Plans detail the range of strategic factors, issues and initiatives which will impact on the local housing environment over the next year. They also provide an opportunity to report on performance for the previous year, 2007/08, and consult with local representatives on proposed housing programmes and investment for 2008/09.

The Ballymoney District Housing Plan 2008/09 is available on the Housing Executive's website www.nihe.gov.uk.

- 2 The proposal prevents compliance with landscaping condition No 04 of previous approval D/2006/0293/F.
- 3 Not in the spirit and intent of previous approval D/2006/0293/F.

Alderman Campbell requested that an Office Meeting be held. The Planning Officer advised that it was not the intention of the Planning Department to facilitate an office meeting as the dwelling, initially approved in 1998, included a sunroom extending beyond the curtilage of the proposal. Following the intervention of the Planning Service Enforcement Section, the sunroom was demolished. This new application seeks to re-build the sunroom in its original position. At the request of Councillor Storey, the Planning Officer advised that item (3) of the reasons for refusal is not a planning policy but the application would only be considered if the applicant could meet the criteria. Councillor McCamphill, Councillor Stevenson and Councillor Patterson expressed the view that an office meeting should be granted to afford the applicant an opportunity to discuss the re-siting/re-sizing of the sunroom.
